

WHERE LAWYER CAME IN.

Worked Up a Shock for the Passenger and Got Damages for It.

Uncle Billy Smith had got back home after a trip to see his sister, and sitting on the post office steps, relates the Baltimore American, he said to the men who were asking questions:

"Well, in the car with me was a lawyer. I'd been talkin' with him and feelin' sorry that he hadn't taken to some honest profession, when the cars run off the track. Nobody was hurt, but our trunk in the baggage car was all smashed up. Purty soon a man comes around, and ask us to make out the damages. I wrote down that I had lost two shirts, three pairs of socks, an old suit of clothes and a pair of shoes, and that my damages was ten dollars. The lawyer looks at the paper and said:

"But you hain't added anything to the shock."

"What shock?"

"The shock to your feelin's. Put down $200 for that."

"But have my feelin's been shocked?"

"Of course they have, and you must get pay for it."

"I put her down as he said, and two days later I got my damages in hard cash. I've all along thought a lawyer was next door to a pirate, and that he'd do most any mean thing, but I've had to change my mind. That feller jest worked up a shock for me and got me $200 extra, and if my son Sam wants to go into the law business I shan't do any great ob jectin'."

Playgrounds.

If Judge Staake is right—and he ought to know—more juvenile playgrounds mean fewer juvenile criminals. That's a pretty good argument for the playgrounds.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Patience.

He surely is most in need of another's patience who has none of his own.—Lafayette.

An Epigram.

An epigram is a commonplace in a fancy waistcoat.—Puck.

Eureka! Yes, I Have Found it At Last!

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—ELDER JOHN T. O'NGLEY, Rootville, Pa. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Amusement for Children.

If parents would invest in a small amount of ordinary modeling clay they would feel well repaid in seeing what a source of amusement it is for the children. They rarely tire of the work, and very quickly learn to model useful household articles. Vases, jardinières and even flower boxes can be made, and when covered with enamel paint prove useful for the summer piazza.

Fish's Snout Like Saw.

A very curious ray, and one quite abundant off the Florida coast, is the sawfish. This animal has a sharklike body, but its most curious characteristic is its snout, which is horizontally flattened and projects far beyond the mouth. On the edges of this snout stout teeth are inserted, so that the resemblance to a two sided saw is all but complete.

Try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for Rheumatism.

Mr. J. W. Jamison, a merchant of Newport, Iowa, says: "I have sold Chamberlain's Pain Balm for several years and have recommended it for neuralgia and rheumatism, as well as for more common pains, and it has given good results. I sell more of it than of any other liniment I carry, and cheerfully recommend it to the public. For sale by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.

Food That Reaches London.

The secretary of the public health committee says that the total amount of foodstuffs that reaches London yearly is between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 tons, of which rather more than two-thirds arrive by water and less than one-third by rail. Three-fifths of the whole quantity is consumed by the Londoners, the remainder merely passing through in the course of transit elsewhere.

She Should Drink First.

Mr. Bok says no gentleman should ever take a drink before his wife.—Houston Post.

Books English Boys Like.

By a poll taken recently by the People's Friend it was ascertained that "Robinson Crusoe" is still the first favorite with the English boy. Next to it come "Coral Island," "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "Ivanhoe," "The Swiss Family Robinson," "Treasure Island," "Pilgrim's Progress," "Westward Ho!" "Oliver Twist" and "David Copper field."
